Takes the Six Furlong Handleap. "If Beldame is the queen of the turf, then Sysonby is king!" This was the comment of James R. Keene in the paddock after the running of the $20,000 Tidal Stakes for threeyear-olds, one mile and a quarter, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon. Sysonby, the fleet son of Melton-Optime, was victor and so magnificently did he win in the remarkably fast time of 2:05 that turfmen talked of nothing else the rest of the day.

It was Sysonby's first appearance since he ran a sensational dead heat with Race King Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park. That he is a vastly improved horse there was no doubt, for he simply galloped out in front of his field in an easy, frictionless manner, and was finally pulled almost to a walk at the end. Sydney Paget's Tradition, who took Sysonby's measure in the Futurity last year, was withdrawn, which deprived the lidal of much of its interest to the crowd of 25,000 persons who saw the race. John E. Madden also scratched Hot Shot, which left S. S. Brown's Agile, Fred Burlew's Migraine and Mr. Paget's Cairngorm to take issue with the famous Keene colt. They carried stake weight, 126 pounds, and Sysonby was a hot favorite at 9 to 10, with Cairngorm second in favor at 5 to 2 and Agile well played at Nicol received orders to take Sysonby to the front at the start and keep him there. With the raising of the barrier Sysonby showed a world of speed, and took a commanding lead before he had finished the first quarter of a mile. Then Nicol, who had him under wraps, sat still and the Melton colt covered the ground so swiftly that the clockers opened their eyes when they saw how rapidly the furlongs were reeled off. Cairngorm was half a dozen lengths behind Sysonby in the run up the backstretch, with Agile not far away. Both were extended to the limit of their endurance in a vain effort to catch the Keene colt, who was sailing along as if merely enjoying an exercise gallop. At the head of the stretch, after he had turned the mile in 1:391-5, Sysonby drew away, while Cairngorm surrendered to Agile. Nicol never made a move in the run home, and when Sysonby passed the judges with four lengths over Agile there was a wild scene. The time was a new record for the stakes second slower than McChesney's track record. The running of the Foam Stakes, for twoyear-olds, five furlongs straightaway, was bitter pill for those who made C. E. Rowe's La Sorciere, an added starter, a hot favorite at 6 to 5. La Sorciere was beaten from the start. Jacobite, on the other hand, carrying top weight set a swift pace and was never caught. Willie Davis had him in hand at the wire, where he beat Inquisitor by a length and a half in 1:00 1-5. Eight lengths back Lyne nailed third money with Mrs. R. W. Walden's Sufficiency, 20 to 1.

A magnificent ride by Jack Martin enabled F. F. Kelly S. S. Brown's Broomstick, with 133 pounds on his back, to win the highweight handicap at six furlongs. The start was poor, Sydney Paget's Zeala, 7 to 2, being virtually left with Broomstick off poorly. Bank, 9 to 2, showed the way for a furlong, then gave way to James R. Keene's Regal, 8 to 1. But Martin skinned the rail with Broomstick and then cut him loose. The Ben Brush colt shot to the front in royal style, Winning by two lengths in 1:14. Bank lasted long enough lengths in 1:14. Bank lasted long enough to beat Zeala, who ran a great race, too, a head for the place.

Thousands of dollars were lost on John A. Drake's Runnels, odds on favorite, in the sixth race, at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass. Sydney Paget's Woodsaw, 5 to 2, went out with Runnels for a terrific duel at the etart. O'Neill rushed up with W. W. Darden's Monsieur Beaucaire, 18 to 5, just in time to take the race by a neck in 1:474-5. Wood-saw was a head in front of Stamping Ground. After a long delay at the post '1. t. McDowell's Geranium, 11 to 5 favorite, got a clever ride from Lucien Lyne and, coming from behind in the stretch, he won the second race, at a mile, breezing, by a length and a haif in 1:40 3-5. Chimney Sweep, 15 to 1, after making nearly all the running, thissed in the place, a head in front of Kansas Price's Uncle Urigh, 30 to 1.

BERMUDANS BAT POORLY. score Only 42 Runs Against Metropolitan League Team. For the first time in the history of Ber-nudan cricket, a team from the leland engaged in an international match with a New ork eleven yesterday, at Staten Island The New York team was selected from the clubs composing the Metropolitan District Cricket League and formed one of the most epresentative teams that has played for New York in years.

The Bermudans, no doubt, were at a disadvantage in not having fully recovered from the effects of their voyage, while the grass wicket was also unfamiliar to them ting. Owing to these causes their exhibition of both "out" and "in" cricket fell far below that of the home team, which at the conclusion of the day's play had the tremendous advantage of 229 runs and 7 wickets on the first inning's score.

The visitors had the advantage of batting first on a good wicket, but against the effective bowling of M. R. Cobb and F. F. Kelly, New York's two old reliables, they could do simply nothing, and were all disposed of for a total of 42 runs. None of the men played with any confidence, and E. St. G. Tucker, who played patiently for 22, was the only man to reach double figures. Both New York bowlers had exceptional analyses for an international match, for Cobb took wickets for 25 runs and Kelly 4 for 17.

When the Metropolitan League team went in to bat some splendid cricket was seen.
J. L. Poyer and J. F. Curran defied all efforts to dislodge them, and, together, put in 151 runs for the second wicket in 2 hours and runs for the second wicket in 2 hours and 15 minutes. Poyer, who scored a good deal faster than his partner, got within seven runs of a "century" before he was bowled for a faultless inning of 93.

J. F. Curran kept up the good work in association with C. P. Hurditch. He gave three palpable chances when he had scored 60, but after that he settled down and gave as brilliant an exhibition of batting as has ever been seen in New York. When stumps were drawn for the day he was still undisposed of and had 95 runs to his credit.

C. P. Hurditch had a merry innings of 18, while A. G. Laurie livened things up by vigorous hitting. He scored 16 runs off one over and put on 48 in an incredibly short time. His partnership with J. F. Curran was still unbroken when play ceased for the day, by which time the total had advanced to 266, with but three wickets down.

Play will be resumed to-morrow morning at 11 cyclock. The score. Play will be resumed to-morrow morning at it o'clock. The score:

DRAKE LOSES A PLUNGE BET.

RUNNELS BURNS UP $15,000 FOR THE CHICAGO TURFMAN.

Victory of Monsieur Beaucaire Takes $40,000 From Bookmakers-Thousands Placed on Broomstick and Sysonby - Track Owners Still Deliberating John A. Drake and his friends lost big race vesterday. Trainer Enoch Wishard had prepared Runnels for what was expected to be a sure victory, and the Charade horse on his work alone looked to be a "moral." Drake has not been doing much heavy betting this year and in fact has not been cutting a big swath in turf affairs, for the reason that last fall, when he sold his horses, he declared that he would not have so much time to devote to Runnels appeared to be had a chance to win resist the temptation to indulge in one of his time plunges. The Chicago turfman and his associates did not do much in the betting line as far as the ring is concerned on any of the races until the speculation on the last event began. Then there was action, and plenty of it. Runnels opened at 5 to 2 and the money fairly poured into the ring before the books had an inkling of what was coming off. Drake had several commissioners at work as soon as the odds first appeared. One of them offered $10,000 to Bill Cowan, who was unwilling to accept more than $2,000 of it. Sol Lichtenstein, Leo Mayer, Louis Snell and other big layers were approached with the Drake money until it is said $15,000 was wagered for the owner of Runnel. Max Blumen-thal and Sol then tu ned and bet $1,000 each on the Drake horse, while nearly all of the best known operators followed suit. Runnels was pounded down to 9 to 10 by the time the horses came out of the paddock, but within the next five minutes, while the field was on the way to the post, the clubhouse commissioners hurried about the ring taking Monsieur Beaucaire. There was plenty of 4 to 1 against this horse, who was quickly backed down to threes, while Runnels went back to 11 to 10. A man whose identity was unknown to the layers went up and down the line betting $500 at a clip on Beaucaire. whose victory must have cost the ring at least $40,000. Woodsaw was also heavily backed by the Paget-Deimeel combination. Drake saw the race from the clubhouse. When Runnels fell back, beaten, the Chicago man turned away and hurried with his friends to a new automobile that had brought them

Broomstick was the goods in the first race and was tremendously backed. There was one clubhouse commission of $5,000, with Jesse Lewisohn and George Wheelock betting $2,500 each. Those who placed $1,000 or more on the Ben Brush colt were Bob Tucker. H. Graham, Joby Coleman, Eddie Burke, Aleck Shields, the Lichtensteins, Bill Jackman, Frank Tyler and Smith Keime. Morris Hayman took Regal, Jim Beattie pia yed Bank and Joe Hayman and Eole Pearsall went to Zeala.

E. E. Smathers wan close to $5,000 on Geranium in the second race. Wheelock had si,300 on this horse, who was also heavily played by the clubhouse patrons. Charles Head Smith lost a good bet on Flammula, Dave Johnson and Eddie Burke played Witch Hazel, Eddie McDonald and T. D. Sullivan took Old England, Isaac Frank lost $1,000 on Bellatrix, Joe Yeager bet on Canteen and Tom Costigan fancied Neptunus.

La Sorciere burned up all kinds of money in the Foam Stakes. He was backed by Dave Johnson, the Lichtensteins, Dave Holland and the Western crowd, including Otto Stifel of St. Louis, who wagered, it is said, about $1,500. J. Grant Lyman placed $1,500 on Jacobite, who was also supported by Sidney Paget and Sim Diemel. Wheelock and Eole Pearsall dropped solid wagers on Inquisitor. There was a $10,000 commission on Sysonby in the Tidal Stakes placed by the clubhouse agents. Bud Meyer bet $2,500 on the Keene colt, Sol $2,000, the Counsellor $1,500, and G. Curtis, Pack McKenna and Albert Simons smaller amounts. Eole Pearsall, Sig Levy, Joe Hayman and John Moran were among those who had to pay for the privilege of thinking that Cairngorm could not lose. Bob Tucker and Alex Shields lostwagers on Agile. $1,500 on this horse, who was also heavily Joe Hayman and John Moran were among those who had to pay for the privilege of thinking that Cairngorm could not lose. Bob Tucker and Alex Shields lost wagers on Agile.

Speedway, the winner of the fifth race, was passed up by the wise men, most of whom bet on Consistent and Phyllis A. Consistent carried big money from Lewisohn and the Lichtensteins, while Eole Pearsall and T. D. Sullivan put liberal bets on Phyllis A. Jim Davey lost $2,500 on Sir Russell. On the whole the ring had a shade the better of it on the day.

There was no change in the strained relations between the Mets and the Coney Island Jockey Club. The arrangements in the betting ring were the same as on Friday, seventy Mets to ten outsiders in the front line. The track owners were not inclined to discuss the situation at all, and it was impossible to learn whether there was really any intention on their part to discipline the individuals who were responsible for the rule breaking and strike in the ring on Suburban Day. The matter was still under discussion, it was said, but nobody seemed to know what the outcome would be, although the impression prevailed that the track owners could not allow the Mets to get away with their highhanded methods.

The Mets, it may be said, are expecting some sort of action. Some of them said yesterday that as soon as the track owners made a move there would be retaliation of a serious nature. That the Mets are simply resting on their oars seems to be the inference to be drawn by the lull in the ring. William Pinkerton was in absolute control yesterday. In fact, according to one of the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club. Pinkerton is the man who will attend to all matters of disorder in the ring in future. But Pinkerton will have to receive orders from somebody before he can deal summarily with the men who virtually took possession of the ring on Thursday and defied the managers of the track.

If Sysonby had been a starter in the Suburban would he have beaten Beldame? The keene colt did not start in the Subur for her Gravesend race, which made her sore up for that event, in which she was beaten when heavily backed.

By an odd coincidence, No. 1 in each race yesterday cut a big figure in the results. Broomstick, Jacobite, Sysonby and Monsieur Beaucaire, all winners, were No. 1 on the program, while Uncle Urigh and Aviston, also at the top of the list, were both third.

E. R. Thomas yesterday sold his residence and some ground adjoining at Sheepshead Bay to S. C. Hildreth for $22,000.

Consistent, who ran second in the fifth race, is a full sister to Contend, who was a starter in the second race. She is by Galore—Conjectrix.

While at the post for the last race Stamping Ground threw Miller and ran away. The frantic efforts of half a dozen stablemen to catch her greatly amused the crowd.

It is said that the gross receipts of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's spring meeting at Gravesend were $00,000 less than last year.

NEWARK TROTTER WINS. J. E. Meyers's Swage Beats Jolly Bachelor at Empire City Matinee.

opening matinee of the New York Driving Club held yesterday at Empire City track proved a very enjoyable event. The grand stand was filled with spectators, and the members filled the clubhouse to overflowing. After the races a luncheon was served to members and invited guests. The races were all dashes at one mile, s that twelve avents were finished at an early hour. More than fifty horses were entered in the different events, and every event was well contested. Joseph E. PUBLIC SCHOOL 44 WINS.

Brooklyn Boys Secure Point Honors in Elementary Schools Meet.

The annual track and field championship of the elementary school under the auspices of the Public Schools Athletic League was held yesterday at Columbia Oval, Williamsbridge, and a crowd of nearly four hundred boys participated. Though the heat was intense the youngsters suffered no ill effects from their work, and in all cases the competitions were keen.

The great object at stake was the scoring for point honors, for which there was a big silver trophy. This fell to Public School 44 of Brooklyn, with a total of 22 points. Schools 18 and 40 of Manhattan were second and third, respectively, with 20 and 18 points. The scores of the other schools which competed were 24 Manhattan, 14: 77 Manhattan, 13: 127 Brooklyn and 166 Manhattan, 12 each: 123 Brooklyn, 11. Four schools, 10 and 19 Man-hattan, 9 Bronx and 128 Brooklyn, made 7 apiece; 6 Manhattan and 3 Brooklyn made apiece; 8 Manhattan and 3 Brooklyn made 6 each, and 15 and 25 Brooklyn and 26 Brooklyn, made 4 points and 67, 48 and 188 Manhattan were credited with 3. Two points each fell to 31 Brooklyn and 29 Manhattan and 1 each to 49 and 28 Manhattan and 108 and 45 Brooklyn and 29 Manhattan and 1 each to 49 and 28 Manhattan and 108 and 45 Brooklyn. Several new records were examished during the afternoon. In the 440 yard run special Henry Kennedy, Public School 77 Manhattan, ran the distance in 57 4-5 seconds in the second heat, but he was unplaced in the final, which was won by James Hart in 58 2-5 seconds. The former record was 59 1-5 seconds, by C. Kant of Public School 127 of Brooklyn. Public School 3 of Brooklyn shattered the old record of 1 minute 48 4-5 seconds in the 880 yard relay by going the distance in 1 minute 42 2-5 seconds and incidentally secured the cup offered by Evart Jansen Wendell. In one of the heats of the 440 yard relay junior Public School 40 of Manhattan equaled the record of 58 2-5 seconds and the same team won the final in two-fifths of a second slower time. The record of 45 seconds was also equaled by Public School 40 in the midget relay, 360 yards, in one of the heats, but they won the final in four-fifths of a second slower time. each, and 15 and 25 Brooklyn and 25 and 165 the final in four-fifths of a second slower time

Nathan Rosenberg of Public School 25 ran 60 yards in 7 1-5 seconds beating the former mark by two-fifths of a second, and Frank Schick of Public School 123, Brooklyn, won the 50 yard in 63-5 seconds, equaling the old record. A respectable slice was knocked off the 120 yard hurdle mark of 19 seconds, held by W. Wolfe of Public School 2 of Brooklyn, for N. Volk, of Public School 77 ran over the sticks in 17 1-5 seconds, but the obstacles were only 2 feet 6 inches high New figures were in order again in the 220 yard run, which was won by W. Crawford of Public School 127 in 24 1-5 seconds, beating the previous mark of 24 3-5 seconds, held by himself. Curris Simpson of Public School 44, Brooklyn, equaled his record of 15 feet 11 inches in the junior broad jump. In the 8 pounds shot, junior, Harry Grothcer did 35 feet 13 inches, wiping out the former record of 32 leet 65 inches, held by W. Meyer of Public School 10, Manhattan.

SQUADRON A SPORTS.

Military Races Attract Society People to Van Cortlandt Park. Squadron A held a series of military races on the pirade ground at Van Cortlandt Park vesterday, and a big gathering of society people and those who love equine sports in any shape made the event a success. The program was made up of six events—two flat races, a steeplechase, a hurdle race, a double mounted race and a bending contest for polo ponies. Only one accident marred the sport, and that occurred in the hurdle race, the squadron horses, ran plumb into the first hurdle and he and the animal rolled over each other on the sward. Luckily enough he escaped with a wrenched knee. He was taken off the field in the squadron's ambulance and reported to be in no serious danger.

The nice field of fourteen faced the flag for the quarter mile dash straightaway, and after it fell Dolly Moor, a chestnut mare of breedy appearance, went to the front and was lengths. She was ridden by Private W. S. McGuire, but was protested on the ground of not being a regular squadron animal. The of not being a regular squadron animal. The objection was sustained by the officials and McGuire lost the race.

Another disqualification occurred in the hurdle race. Private Harold R. Talbot, on Buster, won after a rattling finish, but it was said he cut the course near the water jump, and he, too, lost the prize. Only three stripped for the steeplechase, and first honors went to New Zealand, ridden by Quartermaster Sergeant Victor Froment. The two other chasers—Pastime, ridden by Private W. S. McGuire, and Barney, steered by Private J. K. B. Stone, were hard of mouth and refused the obstacles repeatedly, leaving New Zealand the casiest kind of a winner.

In the bending contest for polo ponies J. H. Hunt's Snip was auleker on his pins than the others and twisted his active body between the pegs like a snake. Ula, ridden by Private McGuire, and Grey Friar, ridden by L. W. Goddard, tied for second and third, but in the ride-off Ula won.
